HERIOT SUCCEEDS FORMING NEW FRENCH MINISTRY

Political Premier-Designate Calls at Presidential Palace to Report Personnel Probable Lineup.

HE ASSUMES CHARGE OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS

Socialists Pledge Conditional Support, but Powerful Republican Union Opposes Him.

PARIS, July 19.—Former Premier Herriot, leader of the Radical Cabinet, has succeeded in forming a Cabinet to replace the Briand-Lafayette ministry which was beaten yesterday in its finance policy.
Herriot announced this afternoon that the final lineup of his Cabinet would be given out tonight.

Close friends of the Premier-designate gave the make-up of the Cabinet as follows: Premier and Minister of Foreign Affairs, Herriot; Justice, Rene Renoult; Finance, Anatole de Monzie; Navy, Georges Dumesnil; War, Paul Delaunay; Public Instruction, Edmond Daladier; Commerce, Louis Dreyfus; Interior, Camille Chauvignat; Pensions, Georges Jourdan; Agriculture, Corneille Queuille; Colonies, Antoine Durafour; and Colonies, Andre Heesse.

Le Trocquer Causes Delay.
Some delay was occasioned by the withdrawal of Le Trocquer, who had been offered the Public Works portfolio. Le Trocquer had made condition of his acceptance the appointment of Colrat to some post in the Ministry. The latter, however, declined the portfolio offered to him.

As a result, it was necessary to negotiate further regarding the appointment of Colrat. The matter was settled in June, 1924. They were Dumesnil, Daladier, Chauvignat and Queuille.

The Premier-designate went to the presidential palace this afternoon.

Herriot has a promise of thrift support of the Socialists and the unqualified opposition of the powerful Republican union by Louis Marin. The Marin group, with 104 members, is the largest in size in the chamber. The total bloc numbers 134 adherents.

The crisis precipitated by Herriot in bringing about the downfall of the Briand Cabinet has caused some displeasure in the Senate among some newspapers. In the Senate all the parties, even the Radicals, blame Herriot's procedure in the Chamber Saturday.
He left the chair and took the floor and bitterly attacked the government for its financial stand.

Herriot had voted with the government on several previous occasions.

Because of a hostile demonstration against Herriot Saturday afternoon, police had guarded the Rue Faubourg, Saint-Hippolyte, in front of the Elysee Palace.

The public has begun to show signs of impatience over the continued breakdown of cabinets and anxiety has become more and more vigorous.

Dangerous Game, Paper Says.
The Journal gives a warning that the public is showing hostility over the situation. It says France must have a government, no matter by whom it is headed, and that the Chamber of Deputies must cease gambling cabinets like a pack of cards, for the game is dangerous and it may spread to the streets of Paris.

It seems certain today that Herriot will receive even sharper opposition from the Senate than during his last administration, which was overthrown by that house.

Augustus Labadie Dies At 82 in Home of His Birth

Bachelor Scion of Pioneer French Settlers for Whom a Street Is Named Is Believed to Be the Last of His Family

Augustus Labadie, 82 years old, descendant of one of the early French settlers of St. Louis, and thought to be the last member of the family for which Labadie avenue was named, died yesterday in the house where he was born, and which stood for many years before his birth, at 317 Poplar street.

He inherited the old house from his father, Joseph Labadie Jr., who in his time had inherited it from his father. A tax receipt on the property, issued to the elder Joseph Labadie in 1823, and preserved by his grandson, is the oldest bit of evidence as to the age of the house. The taxes in that year were $3.50, on a 300-foot frontage. The frontage has been cut down to 43 feet, but in 1923, 100 years after the date of the old tax bill, Augustus Labadie had to

FAILED TO GET THEIR MAN Five Chicagoans Held After Pistol Fight With Bootlegger.

DANVILLE, Ill., July 19.—Following a pistol fight here early today five Chicagoans are under arrest. George Bacchanale, several times convicted here of handling liquor, told police the men came here to get him because he declined to further purchase from them. Bacchanale says he quit dealing with them a month ago. He was not last night and Bacchanale slept in his motor car. He was awakened when three men cut the screen and forced the door of his home. He called on them to surrender. They opened fire, which Bacchanale says he returned.

Two were arrested as they drove away. Three were found in hiding, police state. Bacchanale came here from Chicago 18 months ago.
The men under arrest are Joe Derado, Fred Manclose, Fred Malone, Antonio Gerardo, and Mike Cartolano.

BOMB EXPLODED IN CHICAGO JAIL, ESCAPES AVERTED

Plot for Delivery of Many Criminals, Some Under Sentence of Death, Frustrated by the Guards.

ENTIRE DISTRICT
ROCKED BY BLAST

Thought That Confederates Waited in Autos to Pick Up Any Who Might Make Way to Freedom.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
CHICAGO, July 19.—Wholesale delivery of many desperate criminals, several of whom are under sentence of death, was averted by the narrowest of circumstances when a dynamite bomb was touched off inside the Cook County jail against a wall of the old building.

The explosion was terrific, shaking the neighborhood and rocking the jail building to its foundation.
Prisoners in that part of the jail and guards in the corridors were flung to the stone floors by the force of the concussion. A great hole was torn through the granite, brick and mortar of the wall, and heavy iron and steel bars inclosing the tiers of cells were twisted badly.

Practically all the prisoners in that section, about 600, had just been ordered into their cells after the morning exercises yesterday and guards had locked their cell doors. One guard, Frank Ouhale, had been especially assigned to watch Henry J. "Midge" Perneke, just released from a month's solitary confinement for an attempted jail break.

Bomb Quickly Placed.
The attention of the guard was diverted for a moment. During that moment someone placed the bomb and lighted the fuse.

The resulting detonation hurled Ouhale and the trustees to the floor, but the guard managed to scramble to his feet, slam and bolt the gate, as the prisoners herded in the bullpen attempted to dash out.

The explosion was heard at various nearby police stations, and squadrons of riflemen were rushed to surround the jail. Fire companies went to the scene, prepared to fight with flames or turn the hose upon any escaping prisoners, but their services were not required.

Throng Gather Outside Jail.
Ouhale and other guards immediately planted themselves in front of the opening and threatened death to any prisoner attempting to escape. The prisoners set up a fearful din, beating on the steel doors with whatever came to their hands, shaking the bars and yelling until the din was maddening.
Meanwhile, thousands were assembling outside the jail, until all streets and all alleys in the vicinity were choked with humanity.

It is believed that confederates with automobiles were waiting in the alley to pick up any escaping prisoners and take them to hiding, but when the plot proved abortive they quickly disappeared.
All indications point to Perneke as the ringleader in the plot, but all officials believe the bomb was placed by Frank McElrath, a notorious criminal of many years' immunity, now fighting extradition to Indiana for the murder of a lawyer, some witnesses against one of McElrath's gangsters, also held for murder.

LABOR PARADE BROKEN UP
About 400 Striking Garment Workers Arrested in New York.

NEW YORK, July 19.—An attempted parade by a large part of 40,000 striking garment workers was broken up today by police who rounded up nearly 400 and routed the rest with drawn clubs. Many of the prisoners were women. Of the first 100 arraigned, 14 were fined $5 each and the rest $3 on plea of guilty.

The strikers gathered at Thirty-seventh street between Seventh and Eighth avenues with placards.
Some of their leaders maintained that they were only intent on peaceful picketing of garment shops, but police charged that picketing in mass formation constituted a parade, for which no license had been issued. Police in squad rushed the gathering each time it formed in marching order, herded groups into doorways and stood guard with their clubs until overworked patrol wagons carted the prisoners away. The disturbance lasted several hours.

HERIOT SUCCEEDS IN FORMING NEW FRENCH MINISTRY

ment does not possess the requisite courage to face facts.

The Daily Telegraph, implying doubt of Herriot's ability to bring about financial reform, says the real difficulty lies in the fact that the Chamber of Deputies is composed of a number of small groups from which no homogeneous durable majority can be formed.

The Daily Mail attributes the whole situation to the American war debt, which, it says, "overhangs Europe and is the fruitful cause for economic and financial disaster."

Herriot Wants to Save the Franc Without Foreign Credits.
Overnight, 1926, by the Press and Publisher Publishing Co., New York City.

PARIS, July 19.—To save the franc without foreign credits or loans, is the purpose of Herriot.
His attitude on foreign credits will make a big difference in France's position as regards the bankers who are planning an informal financial conference for the end of July to find some way of using German reparations bonds in connection with a vast international banking pool to stabilize all European currencies, beginning with the French and Belgian francs and the Italian lire. Caillioux was favorable to the bankers' intervention; Herriot and the Conservatives are opposed to it.

The Radicals and Conservatives also are both opposed to ratification of debt agreements, especially with the United States, and will not listen to ratification of the American debt terms in order to open credits. Judged by Saturday's debate in the Chamber, Herriot's chief strength in Parliament is his opposition to both debt ratifications and credits.

Record Low.
By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, July 19.—The French franc slumped today in all the leading financial centers of the world as a result of the fall of the Briand-Caillioux ministry on Saturday. The demand rate in New York fell 25 points to a new low record for all time—2.15 cents. The preliminary rate, based on cable European quotations, was as low as 2.13, but no transactions were reported at that figure.

The franc, with a nominal par value of 19.36 cents, is now quoted at about 46 to the dollar.

Norton Norris, dated yesterday at Fort Worth, Tex., giving his own version of the killing of D. E. Chipps was received by the New York World last night:

"Two men came to my study in the First Baptist Church Saturday at 4 o'clock, and one of them, D. E. Chipps, rushed at me in the presence of witnesses, declaring he was going to kill me."

"He gave as the cause of his grievance a sermon I preached Sunday morning, July 11, on "Six Members of First Baptist Church Fired by L. B. Haughey, Roman Catholic Manager of Mecham Dry Goods Co."

"The six employers were fired by Haughey of the Mecham Dry Goods Co. because they refused to quit the First Baptist Church.

Mecham is the Mayor of the city and I had attacked certain conduct and corruption on the part of the Mayor.

"Chipps, who was killed yesterday (Saturday) evening, the evidence shows, was sent by Mecham to my office. Mecham publicly admits that Chipps was in his Mecham's office, a few minutes before Chipps arrived at my office.

"I deeply regret the necessity that this was thrust upon me to defend my life. Chipps phoned from Mecham's office that he was coming to my office to settle and said: 'We are coming to your office to settle with you.'

"The night watchman leaves a gun in the office where I was and I used this gun.

"I preached this morning and made no reference to them, on the text Romans, eighth chapter, twenty-eighth verse.

"My heart is heavy but my faith is clear and I have perfect peace of mind."

made several attacks on the administration. City Manager C. E.
Carr, presumably backed by Mayor Mecham, announced that the First Baptist Church would have to pay for the water used in its swimming pool and that buildings owned by the church and rented to business firms would not be exempt from taxes, as they had been formerly.

His demeanor now changed.
Leaning with his back against a waist-high platform, the clergyman stood with his head hanging wearily as he gave his hand to his friends. His face sagged and tears were in his eyes.

A great sheaf of telegrams from all parts of the nation, pledging the faith of friends who had accepted religion at his revivals, refused the pastor through the strain of the service.

The morning sermon was a little shorter than usual, and in one respect, the preacher modified his announced plans for the day. He had advertised in newspapers that he would baptize the head Negro sanitor of the church and explain his reasons for doing so. The Negro was there, repentant in a white suit, but at the end of the service had not been immersed.

Background of Killing.
Dr. Norris, who is free on $10,000 bond on a charge of murder, maintains that Chipps went to his study and threatened to kill him after previously threatening him by telephone. Chipps was so menacing that Dr. Norris said he saw nothing to do except shoot. So he took the night watchman's pistol from his desk and fired four times.
Three bullets struck Chipps, who died on the way to the hospital.

Chipps had gone to see Norris about the pastor's attacks on Mayor Mecham, spread through his newspaper and over the radio from his pulpit.

Norris, in 1911, waged one of the most bitter court fights Fort Worth ever saw, and obtained his acquittal of charges of arson in connection with the burning of the First Baptist Church. Following that, he built up here one of the largest churches in the world.

Since the city manager form of government was established in Fort Worth a year ago, Dr. Norris had

By the Associated Press.
PAUL SMITHS, N. Y., July 19.—
The summer White House

vitation of President Coolidge.

The Secretary, who is on an official inspection trip, will arrive today. When Mr. Coolidge that his trip would take him in a comparatively short time of White Pine Camp he was invited to Davis.

Sunday was a quiet day for President and Mrs. Coolidge, who were attending morning service at First Presbyterian Church in Anac Lake, they spent the afternoon and evening in camp enjoying the sunshine and the weather. Gov. Smith, attended at Barnabas Catholic Church in from the church at which the Coolidges attended service.

CITY EMPLOYEE QUITS WHEN ASKED TO AID PROCTOR

Alex J. Filipiak, Original Miller Man, Resigns as an Associate City Councilor.

CRITICISES MAYOR'S POLITICAL ACTIVITY

Some City Hall Workers, Not Ready to Give Up Jobs, Grumbling at Pressure Brought to Bear.

Rather than make a Proctor-for-Senator campaign speech, Alex J. Filipiak today tendered his resignation as Associate City Councilor. He is supporting Senator Williams in the senatorial contest at the primary two weeks from tomorrow.

The invitation to make a Proctor-for-Senator speech, came to him from Jack H. Grosse, City Register and chairman of the Municipal Employees' Benefit Association. Grosse asked Filipiak to attend a Twenty-fourth Ward picnic, and say a few words for Proctor.

Filiplik declined, and after thinking the matter over, wrote his resignation. He also prepared a statement in which he said that he supported Mayor Miller in his campaigns for Governor and Mayor, and that he had believed Williams would run the city's affairs as a basis of efficiency, not politics.

Cris Removal of Wall.
"I was disillusioned," he said, and cited the removal of Director Wall of the Public Utilities department; the recent resignation of Herman Schmidt, Superintendent of the fire alarm department; the organizing and assessing of city employees, including firemen, who he said are taxed about $1000 a month; the political activities of the Efficiency Board; and dictation to city employees in connection with the coming primary.

The three men ran for Senator. Thomas Sheehan and Frank Schwartz appeared. Sheehan fired a shot at the city hall. All escaped but Bigan, a past Schwartz and him.

One of the Stirring Moments in River Motorboat Races

MISS ST. LOUIS leading Elanar, which finished first, at the first turn in yesterday's speed boat free-for-all. Miss St. Louis was second across the finish line.

PLENTY OF THRILLS FOR 25,000 VIEWING MOTORBOAT RACES

Winning Craft Starts to Sink and Two Others Take Fire—Crowds Pack Levee Free But Ignore Grand Stand at $1 a Head.

Thrills of air, fire and water made it a lively day for 25,000 or more persons who thronged the downtown levee yesterday to see fast boats in the second annual mutorboat regatta.

Besides the fiery sun, there was evidence that an extinguisher—as well as a pump—is something speed boats can do without. There was some of the prettiest stunt flying seen in St. Louis for a long time, and, besides the water thrills on the program, one man thought the cavorting plane was going to shake hands with him and dove fully dressed, into the muddy Mississippi.

All the upsets, fortunately, were in the "dope." A 64-year-old man, in the first speed-boat race he had ever seen, won the cup for first prize in the runabout class and did it largely by expert driving. The Hoosier Boy, which holds a world's record, ran away with the first leg of the free-for-all, then limped in at the finish in third place, and the Miss St. Louis, finished second ahead of the champion.

Winning Boat Springs Leak.
But there were plenty of extra thrills without literal upsets. Two boats had to call for fire extinguishers and the Elanar, winner of the main race, began to sink.
A deck of the "Erastus Wells," anchored in midstream for starters and officials, was cleared to hoist her aboard, but the Elanar decided to take a tow to a North St. Louis boat yard.

Towlines broke twice. The Elanar, although a bearing had been burned out in the race, started south under her own power. Past the Free Bridge the motor gave up. Two boats were sent after her in the emergency and the last spectators saw of her she was going south, sinking lower every minute, but at last safely in tow.

From a block above Eads Bridge to a block below the Free Bridge the levee was black with the tops of automobiles, marked off into a mammoth checkerboard by bright lines and groups of spectators, while others crowded the ramps on the bridges to the middle of the river, and thousands watched from the barges and docks at the shore and steamers Erastus Wells and City of Peoria in midstream.

Grand Stand Deserted.
Lines of the checkerboard on the levee, as may be imagined, were not very regular. Its big flaw—especially to the view of the race management—was a block of 5000 seats with about 20 occupants. A dollar admission for a seat in the sun seemed to be about as attractive as a smallpox placard.

The first races were not the kind to strain any weak hearts among the spectators. The eight-year St.
Louis shell won the half-mile rowing race from its only competitor, the North End, in four minutes, 10 seconds. D. R. Wright of Valley Park won the 2½ mile outboard motor canoe race against a four-minute handicap, in 9:40. The Take Your Time of Stewart Butterfield walked away from the over-heavy Yoochoo, the only other entry, to take first in the five-mile crusier race with a time of 15:50.

Speedy runabouts flocked up to the starters' barge beside the Erastus Wells to get their numbers, and spectators had time to mop their foreheads and hunt up the ice water in preparation for the first big race. There was sufficient breeze to make the water choppy, but not enough to lower the temperature appreciably. The speedsters were cool enough in motion, but the sunny side of the officials' barge was blazing hot.

Five boats started with a thunderous roar of motors, casting up gleaming sheets of spray and leaving waves that rocked the big steamboats. The course was from two and one-half miles, from the starters' barge to a buoy above Eads Bridge, back below the Free Bridge and back past the barge.

Boat Takes Fire in Race.
As the worded past the barge on the first lap the Wild Cat of John Meyer was well in the lead, but before the next lap ended, she was afire.

The Hazel II of Arthur S. Martin, a real estate man who will be 64 years old tomorrow, had been the last under the starter's flag. Just as they passed the Erastus Wells on the first leg Martin stopped loafing. He hauled up on the Hazel II of W. Schreiber right there, and on the next round took second place from the Baby Black Prince of W. D. Crowell. The Wild Cat smoking ominously, fell back behind Martin's boat, and, on the last leg, the Black Prince to finish a game third.

Martin, who never piloted a boat until last year but had shown expertness in this, his first race, was first in 18:07 for the 10 miles. Crowell was second, Wild Cat third, and the Lightning of A. W. Black and A. H. Brodbeck was fourth.

Hydroplanes Easily Lead.
Four hydroplanes and the Black Prince ran the major event, the free-for-all. The Black Prince had no chance against the hydroplanes, but sauntered about the course a leg or so behind to take fifth money, with no competition.

Here again, the first leg was nothing to judge the finish from.
The Hoosier Boy, with nearly twice the power of the other boats, flashed down the course like a sure winner. But—"Look at that turn!" spectators shouted. The Elanar, with a daredevil at the wheel, had rounded the buoy at the turn like a skidding Ford and gained half the Hoosier Boy's lead.

Black smoke from the Hoosier Boy's exhausts on the next round signaled gasolene trouble, and the Elanar, not wasting an inch on turns or straightaway, took the lead amid a deafening clamor from shouting spectators, automobile horns and the whistles of steamboats. Miss St. Louis took third at the start and held it, hauling up on Hoosier Boy in the third leg and nosing ahead for second place in the last. The White Cap II was fourth.

The Elanar's time for the 10-mile run was 12:35.9, nearly four minutes faster than last year's record set by Miss St. Louis, which made it in 13:05.8 this year. The Hoosier Boy's time was 13:13.4.

D. A. Buckley and Don Tracy of the Elanar are only 24 years old.

ACCIDENT VERDICT IN TETANUS DEATH

Christian Scientist Mother Questioned in Treatment of Son, 12, Who Died.

Coroner Vitt today received a verdict of accident in the death of Ralph Alyn Clark, 12 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will A. Clark of 925 Beach avenue, who died Saturday night of tetanus resulting from a blank cartridge powder burn, suffered July 7.

At the inquest it was brought out that the boy's mother, who is a Christian Scientist, had had nothing done for the burn, a seemingly slight one on the left index finger, except to rub salve on it and tie it in a bandage. Last Thursday morning, members of the family related today, Ralph complained that his neck hurt. This was a symptom of the tetanus, but the parents thought it was a sign of a cold, suffered from sleeping in a draft on a porch. Early Friday Ralph cried out that the pain in his neck was unbearable and that his jaw hurt. He was then sent to City Hospital, where he died within 40 hours.

Mother Questioned.
Mrs. Clark, questioned by Coroner Vitt, who is a physician, said she "learned" from Christian Science.

"What did you do to protect your son against tetanus?" he asked her. "Did you read the warnings about use of anti-tetanus serum sent out from this office for the Fourth of July?" She replied that she did not recall having seen them.

"You depended on Christian Science, did you?" the Coroner asked.
"Christian Science protected by boy for 12 years," was her answer.

"In this case," the Coroner continued, "let me inform you that more efficacious. More than 300 persons who were powder burned in St. Louis this Fourth of July were immunized and this is the only fatality I have heard of."

Mrs. Clark said she had done what she thought was right, and who is a physician, said she had been told that the finger "burned" a little.

When Ralph arrived at City Hospital he received an injection of anti-tetanus serum, although early application of this treatment usually is essential.

His funeral was held this afternoon in an undertaking establishment at 6216 Delmar boulevard, with burial in Calhoun Cemetery. A representative of the Fourth Church of Christ, Scientist, conducted the service and six members of Ralph's Boy Scout Troop, which is connected with West Presbyterian Church, served as pallbearers. A brother, Wayne, 14, and a sister, Mrs. Marion Dewitt of Temple, Tex., also survived.

$300 HOLDUP IN DRUG STORE AT UNION AND PERSHING

Negro Porter Struck Down When He Refuses to Put Up His Hands at Order of Robbers.

Two men entered the drug store at the northwest corner of Union and Pershing avenue at 8:15 a. m. today, drew revolvers and ordered the proprietor, Meyer N. Greenberg, and the Negro porter, James Kitcheloe, to raise their hands. Greenberg did so, but
floor until he was struck on the head and knocked unconscious.

Greenberg was marched downstairs to the basement and the two men took about $300 from three cash registers. They were seen driving away in a new Ford by workmen on apartment buildings across the street.

SUIT SEEKS TO STOP SALARIES TO FAMILY

Creditor of P. C. Murphy Trunk Co., Takes Receivership Case Into Federal Court.

Members of the Murphy family controlling the P. C. Murphy Trunk Co., with salesrooms at 707 Washington avenue and factory at 500-506 North Third street, are charged with paying excessive salaries and rentals to themselves, in a suit for receivership for the firm filed in Federal Court today by the Christian Veneer and Lumber Co.

The Christian firm was one of three creditors that filed an involuntary bankruptcy suit against the Murphy firm, June 19. The Murphy company filed a denial of insolvency, and asked for a trial by jury of the issue. In the re-ceivership petition filed today, it is charged the denial was not filed in good faith, but merely to delay liquidation of the Murphy company's assets to permit the members of the Murphy family to "hang on" to their salaries.

Lists Salaries of Family.
It is charged the following monthly salaries are being paid to members of the Murphy family:
P. C. Murphy, secretary-manager, $518.66; Alfred E. Baker, president, whose wife was a Murphy, $425; Mrs. Josephine Rosenthal, nee Murphy, vice president, $225, and George Rosenthal, her son, $200. Payment of these salaries is causing a loss to the company and constitutes a fraud upon creditors, it is declared.

A rental of approximately $15,- 000 a year is being paid to the Murphy family, as owners and landlords, for the Third street factory, the petition continues. The petition asserts the company is losing $4000 a month in 1926, and lost the following sums for five previous years: 1921, $84,093; 1922, $59,284; 1923, $18,334; 1924, $34,505; 1925, $39,314.

The losses have been incurred chiefly in the manufacturing and wholesale end of the business, as the retail store has shown a profit, but the Murphy family has persisted in the whole business to obtain the excessive salaries and rentals, according to the petition.

Three appraisers, appointed May 21 by a creditors' committee, reported the company had assets of $65,000 and liabilities of $12,086, the petition says.

The assortments of Furniture for the living room, dining room and bedroom shown here are not only of the best makes and unusually fine values, but also moderately priced.

 Weds "The No 'Count Boy."
 Special to the Post-Dispatch.
 NEW YORK, July 19.—The two leading players in "The No 'Count Boy," which won the Belasco prize in the Little Theater tournament last summer, were married yesterday. They were Geraldine Wilson Knight, wealthy widow of Dallas, Tex., and Ben Smith, also of Dallas.

They made a hit in "The No 'Count Boy," a drama of Negro life, presented by the Dallas Little Theater troupe that journeyed to New York for the tournament.
 Smith played the title role. Mrs.
 Knight was a plantation flapper.

After September 1st - A New Store and New Stocks NOW—Radical Price Reductions

WE have been a new organization for the past two years—September will find us bigger and better than ever—due to our tremendous increased business we find it necessary to double our present selling space. Contracts have been let and work has already begun on our Extensive Building plans. The entire store is to be changed from top to bottom. Our handsome display windows will be replaced with ones still more beautiful—the most modern that skilled architects can design.

The Entire First Floor will be devoted to Men's Furnishing Goods and Hats, increasing the size of these Departments 50%. Here, too, no expense has been spared—everything is to be included to make your shopping a pleasure. Wide spacious aisles. The most modern of store fixtures—making for better and quicker service.

The Second Floor will be devoted entirely to Men's Clothing. This will mean a department almost twice its present size; stocks will be increased proportionately.

The Third Floor will be our Boys' and Ladies' Department. These two departments will be greatly enlarged and there will be a delightful new play room for the kiddies.

On the Fourth Floor....well that's a really big secret to be announced later—but we can assure you it will be a most pleasant surprise for every St. Louis man.

New $15,000,000 B. & O. Shops.
By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, July 19.—New railroad shops and yards for the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, costing $15,000,000, employing 7000 men and replacing the shops at four division points, will be located on the banks of the Little Calumet River in southwest Chicago, it is reported here. Plans are being made for the development of a new type of freight car which may be built in the new shops, it was said.

The Right Breakfast for Workers

Eat Food that Supplies "Balanced" Ration After Night's Fast

If you feel tired, hungry, "fidgety" hours before lunch, don't jump to the conclusion of poor health. Thousands have unenergetic mornings because they start days with breakfasts lacking in certain food elements.

To feel right, you must have a well-balanced, complete breakfast ration. At most other meals—lunch and dinner—you get it. But breakfast is a hurried meal, often badly chosen.

Thus Quaker Oats, containing 16% protein, food's great tissue builder, 58% carbohydrate, its great energy element, plus all-important vitamins and the "bulk" that makes laxatives seldom needed, is the dietetic urge of the world today.

It is food that "stands by" you through the morning.

Get Quaker Oats today. Grocers have two kinds: Quick Quaker, which cooks in 3 to 5 minutes, and Quaker Oats.

MAN, WHO LOST FAITH IN BANKS, ROBBED OF $1633

Burglar Visits Home of Robert Diehl and Takes Money From Two Hiding Places.

The failure of the Chippewa Bank two years ago caused Robert Diehl, a welder of 2319 Olive street, to lose his faith in banks. Thereafter he kept his savings about his home until last night when a burglar took all his money. $1633 in cash.

Diehl discovered his loss at 5 a. m. today. A first-floor screen had been pried off and the money was taken from two hiding places—between the leaves of a book on a closet shelf and from a dresser drawer. Nothing else was disturbed.

Diehl told police he decided he was through with banks when the Chippewa Bank failed. He had lost money in a previous bank failure, he said.

MARRYING SQUIRE DEAD AT 82

Officiated at 710 Weddings in 31 Years at Maryville, Mo.

MARYVILLE, Mo., July 19.—

W. L. Johnson, a justice of the peace in Maryville continuously since 1895, and known as the "Marrying squire of Northwest Missouri," died at his home here Sunday night. He was 82 years old. Mr. Johnson had married 710 couples and celebrated his own sixtieth wedding anniversary in April.

He was born at Londonderry, O., and served in the Civil War. He was taken prisoner at Chickamauga and confined in several Confederate prisons. Besides his 31 years of continuous service as Justice of the Peace, Johnson had served a prior term of four years, had been county treasurer, county attorney, deputy county clerk and deputy circuit clerk.

SIX OF 70 INDIANS
FALL AT SUN DANCEVictims of Three-Day Ceremonial at Pocatello, Ida., Among Older Tribesmen.

By the Associated Press.
POCATELLO, Idaho, July 19.— With aged braves dropping from exhaustion, 60 Bannock and Shoshone tribesmen early today continued to dance about a grotesque totem pole in their grueling effort to win the favor of the sun god for another year.

Starting at sunset Saturday, 70 selected tribesmen began slowly to weave about the totem pole on the dance grounds at the big bend of the Fort Neut River. The dancers represent more than 1000 Indians from the Fort Hall reservation and are assembled for the dance for the first time in four years. The present powwow was permitted by reservation officials on condition that the Indians would refrain from former barbaric practices.

Painted by Medicine Men.
Wearing only a small blanket held about the waist by a beaded belt, and a wessel pelt suspended from the neck, the dancers have been painted by their medicine men with fantastic designs supposed to please the great spirit.
Thus lightly attired, they hop about to the low roar of tom-toms, the shrill blasts of birch whistles and the chanting of their squaws.

As the demonstration continues, the dancers and many of the Indian spectators become highly excited and revert to many of the steps of the early-day war dances.
They are allowed no food and draw only scant portions of water which has been blessed by the solar deity.

Six of the older tribesmen last night dropped within the weaving circle unable to keep the pace set by the young men.

Awaits Word From Great Spirit.
One aged brave was placed with his head resting against the totem

NEGRO KILLED IN DICE GAME

Quarrel Over $14 Stake Results in Shooting.

A $14 stake in a dice game resulted in the killing of George Moore, 43 years old, a Negro of 4210 Pinney avenue at 2930 Pine boulevard yesterday. He was shot in the chest dying immediately.

Police are seeking a Negro known as Homer. They were told Homer had lost money in the game and finally the $14 stake. He left saying he was going home for more money. He returned with a revolver and ordered the $14 put on the table. Before it could be produced he fired one shot hitting Moore.

BORAH SUGGESTS NEW PARTY FOR

Declares Bolshevism in Russia and Nullification in U. S. Are 'Whelps From the Same Kennel.'

REFERENDUMS ON PROHIBITION ASSAILED

"If Eighteenth Amendment Is Injudicious, It Can Be Removed by Process They Used to Adopt It."

By the Associated Press.

AUGUSTA, Ga., July 19.—Arguments for nullification of the prohibition amendment "are the practices which are making a hell of Europe today," in the opinion of Senator Borah (Rep.) of Idaho.

Speaking under the auspices of the Protestant Minister's Association, in the historic First Presbyterian Church, the scene of Woodrow Wilson's boyhood worship, the Idaho Senator told a capacity audience last night that positive enforcement of the Eighteenth amendment never has been tried.

He declared that "Bolshevism in Russia, Fascism in Italy, military dictatorship in Poland and nullification in the United States are whelps from the same kennel, barking at the same thing—constitutional government."

"There has never been the moral force and determination which is necessary to enforcement," he continued, adding that the only method of taking the prohibition issue out of politics would be to make it plain that the Constitution would be enforced. If neither national political party will take a definite stand on prohibition, he suggested that "the people organize another party which will be loyal to the Constitution."

Denounces Referendums.

Referendums on prohibition, such as that to be held in New York State, were described as "for the purpose of undermining and destroying the Constitution through nullification."

"There has never been a time," he asserted, "when men should stand so firm in defense of law and order."

The prohibition controversy, he continued, has developed into "the most important issues that a self-governing people can ever be called upon to consider."

"Instead of a modification of the Volstead Act, we now have the nullification of the Constitution. Instead of non-intoxicating liquor within the Constitution, the demand is now for intoxicating liquor in defiance of the Constitution."

"The same leaders, who asked in the beginning for modification within the Constitution, now declare that they will have intoxicating liquor, Constitution or no Constitution, Volstead Act or no Volstead Act. This is the issue that we now have to meet."

"It may be that it is within the power of the liquor interests to amend the Constitution, a thing which it is well within their right to undertake and within possibilities to achieve. But I take the privilege of asserting, and without fear of the future, that it is not within the power of the liquor interests to nullify the Constitution."

"People May Repeal Amendment." "If the Eighteenth Amendment was an injudicious distribution of power between the State and national governments, the people can take it out of the Constitution by the same process they wrote it in. If a mistake was made, the people can be shown that it was a mistake, and they are wise enough and brave enough to take it out."

"If, on the other hand, after reconsideration and further reflection, the people conclude it was not a mistake, then, under proper and sincere leadership, the people will have to live up to it."

"There is no possible excuse to invoke nullification. There is no law, there is no provision of the Constitution which may not be rewritten or wholly expunged. To preach nullification is to preach lawlessness—ancient and persistent enemy of all Republics."

Assails Arguments for Change. "What are the arguments against following orderly procedure of amending the Constitution? They are familiar arguments. They are the practices which are making a hell of Europe today. First is that it will take too long, and that the method is tedious and cumbersome. It is said the Eighteenth Amendment is against conscience, oppressive, therefore disregarded."

"This is the precise argument which nullified contracts and the law of property in Russia. We are told the people are fanatics or wanting in judgment, and that they may not repeal the amendment—that it is the basis of military rule in Poland."

"Certainly, forms prescribed by the Constitution will have to be observed, for this is a Government of law and not of men. It may take some time to accomplish all this. But it will take far less time to amend in the manner pointed out by the Constitution than it will take to convince the American people that nullification is a sound principle of Government. I venture to say there could be no greater exhibition of self-abasement, of national degradation, than for this great people to leave the eighteenth amendment in the Constitution, and, as some have said,

TO ENTERTAIN SWEDISH PRINCE ON CALIFORNIA CHICKEN RANCHFormer Royal Neighbor of Denmark Now Raises Poultry in Los Angeles.By the Associated Press.
LOS ANGELES, July 19.—Prince Gustavus Adolphus and Princess Louise of Sweden will be entertained by a former royal neighbor during their visit here this week.
The royal host is Prince Eric of Denmark, who prefers life on a California chicken ranch to a palace in Denmark.Prince Eric, following his marriage several years ago, settled down at Arcadia near here, where he now leads the quiet life of a successful and highly respected chicken rancher.Shortly after the royal Swedish visitors arrive here Tuesday they will motor to Arcadia, to be the guests of Prince Eric.By the Associated Press.
MESA VERDE NATIONAL PARK, via Durango, Colo., July 19.
—Crown Prince Gustavus Adolphus and Princess Louise of Sweden and their party saw plenty of live Indians and also dug, literally, into the history of those Indians' predecessors in the canyon, desert and mesa country of Mesa Verde National Park and adjacent Indian reservations.Two hundred Indians greeted the royal party at the Toadlenor Indian School Saturday. En route from the school to the park, the Prince sighted some ancient Indian burial grounds. The expedition halted and Prince Gustavus led in burrowing into the mounds for two hours. Many fragments of pottery were unearthed.The royal party also visited the ruins of the cliff dwellers at Spruce Tree Village.BORAH SUGGESTS

forget it and live in daily disregard of it.

Condemns Form of Referendum.

"If adversaries of the amendment would submit a referendum in their respective states for repeal of it, they would be pursuing a course not subject to criticism, an orderly, dignified course. But their referendums in the form submitted are for the purpose of undermining and destroying the Constitution through nullification.This is the exact meaning of the proposed referendums in the State of New York, to be followed, we are told, by similar referendums in other states. The people are not being asked to express themselves in favor of amending the Constitution, but in favor of the states respectively construing and enforcing the Constitution."The State of New York long ago repealed its statute for the enforcement of the amendment, declaring thereby it would not, as a State, assist in enforcing it. Having repealed its State law for enforcement, it now asks that it be permitted to enforce it and that the national Government consent to all this program."Sapping Foundation of all Order."
"Nullification is not revolution.
It has none of the open, many qualities of revolution. Nullification is the sapping, silent, cowardly sapping of the very foundation of all order, all government, the evasive betrayal of a nation and the spirit and motive of anarchy, without either its courage or its faith."What we need is not less democracy, but more, not less faith in constitutional government, but more. There is no evil but what we cannot for a time endure, there is no hardship that we cannot afford to forget, there is no patience which we should not be willing to practice, rather than to aid and abet in this almost world-wide attack upon a constitutional government."Introducing Senator Borah, William H. Fleming, former Democratic Congressman from the Tenth District, warned that the "Democratic donkey would break out of his pasture in the South and seek more fertile fields" if that party should nominate a wet candidate upon a wet platform.Five Men Injured in Explosion.

Officials of the company said the

COCKRELL TELLS WHY HE EXPECTS TO WIN

Judge Issues Statement He Will Use in Campaign Against Hawes.

Affidavits of withdrawal of Judge Ewing Cockrell from the short-term senatorial primary contest and Willis H. Meredith from the long-term contest today were mailed to the St. Louis and Kansas City Boards of Election Commissioners and to each of the 114 County Clerks in the State to make certain that the names of Cockrell and Meredith are not on the primary ballots for the offices from which they have withdrawn as candidates.

Meredith and Cockrell signed the affidavits this morning in the office of Charles M. Hay, following the publication Saturday in the Post-Dispatch of an announcement from Jefferson City that their notification to the Secretary of State was not sufficient to prevent the names going on the ballots.

After signing the affidavits and before departing on a campaign tour of North Missouri, in which he will cover the territory in which Harry B. Hawes, his opponent, is speaking, Cockrell issued a statement attacking Hawes. He said he would deliver it as a part of his speech throughout the northern part of the State.

Cockrell's Analysis of Situation. "I have been asked in St. Louis why I think I shall win this nomination," Cockrell said. "My opinion is based solely on facts and not on the personal merits of my attractive political opponent or myself. These are some of the facts: 'First, The foundation of Mr. Hawes' strength is the vote he will get in St. Louis City. The Missouri official Manual shows that in the last election the Democratic primary vote in St. Louis City was (for Blair as Judge—uncontested) 45,559. The total vote in the whole State was 365,206. This total is nearly eight times the St. Louis vote. The St. Louis vote, therefore, is almost insignificant compared to the vote of the rest of the State. It is the State that will determine the contest.

"Second, The rest of the State is composed of towns and country. The country vote is very much larger than the town vote. The country voters, who have ever considered the matter, are against Mr. Hawes to start with. This condition I find widespread. Many go back to the days when he fought Folk for Governor. Others simply say he is not their kind of a man. This means that Mr. Hawes, instead of starting with an advantage on account of the St. Louis vote, starts with a disadvantage on account of the much larger country vote being against him.

Says Women Vote Dry. "Third, Outside of St. Louis, the women vote dry as a class and are against him, whether in town or country. The men in the Democratic party outside of the cities also vote dry. Even Kansas City voted dry. Again, he starts in the race not ahead but behind with large majority groups against him.

"Politicians in many towns are for him. But there are many rural towns, where nearly all the politicians are against him. And where they are for him, these few men today cannot influence the great bodies of the voters in the country who make up their own minds and vote their own way."

7 YOUTHS HELD FOR KILLING Iowa Farmer Shot in Scuffle After Row With Pair in Auto. By the Associated Press. KEOKUK, Ia., July 19.—A farmer's interference with young men and women in parked cars along a highway near here is believed to have led to a shooting in which the farmer, Samuel Hurd, 46 years old, is dead, and seven Keokuk young men are held for questioning.

The youths said they visited a point on the road where one of their number, accompanied by a girl, earlier in the evening, had been accosted by Hurd. This youth told officers Hurd demanded money on pain of turning the couple over to the authorities. After the young man had returned to town with the girl he met several of his friends and they returned to the Hurd place where the farmer was encountered. There was a scuffle in which Hurd's shotgun was discharged. An eighth youth is being sought.

These unprecedented terms of ONE DOLLAR DOWN and the balance less than laundry hire will enable every St. Louis Housewife to own one of these wonderful

ABC ELECTRIC WASHERS

The Washer in Over Half Million Homes

The 99 Dollar ABC Oscillator

While this model does not embody all the refinements of the higher-priced models, one will find in it the same BUILT-IN SUPER-CONSTRUCTION that is dominant in the entire ABC line. It carries the same factory guarantee as the higher-priced models and its gentle washing action is as effective as one will find in other makes of washers of this type selling at a much higher price. Its exceptionally low price of $99.00 is only another example of ABC leadership.

The ABC Double A

The ABC Double A Gyrator with its gentle, but highly efficient washing action, is a boon to the busy mother. She finds in it that long-sought-for means of getting the ground-in dirt from kiddies' rompers—from collars and shirt cuffs—from bath towels and hard-to-get-at places, without that back-breaking, nerve-shocking labor of using the rub board. We can truly call this the pride of the ABC line and the dawn of a new era in washing-machine construction as its wonderful washability and super-construction guarantees a lifetime of uninterrupted service. Price, $155.

The Liquor Problem Abroad—No. 4

Motbok System in Sweden Cuts Drinking 50 Per Cent And Drunkenness 60 Per Cent

It Takes Weeks to Get a Motbok or License to Buy a Limited Amount of Liquor Monthly, But There Are More Than a Million of Them in Use—Scandinavian Raines Law Sandwich Costs 35 Instead of 5 Cents As It Used to in New York.

THIS is the fourth of a series of articles surveying the liquor problem and its handling in other countries. It deals further with Sweden. Denmark will be discussed in an article immediately following.

(Copyright, 1926.)
STOCKHOLM, June 22.—Buying a bottle of whisky in this city is an easy task. First of all, the Stockholm citizen, when he feels thirsty, must go to the office of the System—the liquor monopoly—and get a form to be filled out. This form looks very like a war-time questionnaire. It has four pages, about 9 by 12 inches, and contains 14 questions. It demands name, address, date and place of birth, occupation and other intimate personal data. It asks the owner of your income; whether you own a car, and where, if so, and how large a house or flat you have; whether you have a family, and how large it is. Finally, it asks: "Why haven't you applied for a license to buy liquor? Have you ever been convicted of drunkenness? And if so, how long ago? Do you think you are entitled to it, and why?"

For several weeks after this information given is checked and entered in a book. Finally, if no objection is found against the applicant, a "motbok" is issued to him.

A Million Motboks.
These motboks—there are more than 1,000,000 of them now in use in Sweden—look like a cross between a checkbook and a memorandum pad. Armed with this motbok, the citizen goes to his neighborhood shop nearest his home, which is the only one at which the book is sold, and proceeds to make his purchase. If he is listed as a drinker, he may purchase only four quarts of liquor a month. About one-third of the people who hold motboks are listed as non-drinkers. Others are listed as smaller amounts—sometimes less than one bottle a quarter.

Buying a Bottle.
As I pretended a connoisseur of the art of drinking, I had been asked to write on a leaf in his motbok an order for a bottle of whisky and had signed it with my name. He walked the length of the shop, which had compartments for different brands of liquor, and finally, after a long search, he had found the one he wanted. He took the bottle, detached the order slip stamped the counterfoil with a rubber stamp.

The man moved over to a counter behind which were rows of the containing bottles wrapped in straw and paper. He presented the leaf to an attendant, who filed it away and handed over the bottle. The attendant wrapped the bottle in straw and paper, and handed it to the customer. The customer was legally entitled to the bottle, detached the order slip stamped the counterfoil with a rubber stamp.

There are 30 of these local shops in Stockholm, with its population of 600,000. Each one of them has a list of the brands of liquor which are allowed, and each will issue a license if it is in good standing. The license is in good standing if the purchaser has paid down his money, received his change and departed. Not a word was spoken by anyone during the entire transaction.

a piece of hard and greasy toast. It seemed not at all appetizing, and I said so.

"Oh, you're not expected to eat it," he laughed. "Only to get a drink you must order food to the value of one and a half crowns. Here's our schnapps."

It was, of course, the old Raines law sandwich all over again, but that used only to cost 5 cents. As this property sandwich had cost 35 cents, I suggested that it ought to be entitled to another drink.

"You'll see," he said, and beckoning to the waitress ordered two more glasses of schnapps. She returned a curt negative answer.

"Nothing doing," he translated. "She says you can only buy one drink at a time here. If you want more you'd better go to a first-class restaurant, where you can have three."

In other words, the quantity of liquor which one is entitled to purchase at one time in a restaurant varies from 5 to 15 centiliters. The former quantity represents one small glass. The first-class restaurants, however, do not always stick strictly to the letter of the law. In one of them I saw a Scotchman consume two highballs with his dinner and three glasses of liquor brandy afterward, and there was no hint on the part of the waiter that the limit had been reached.

Denies It Is Class Legislation.
All of these various restrictions came to seem, as one investigated them, more and more to have the nature of class legislation. Why should the first-class restaurants be permitted to serve three times as much as the third class? Why should some people be allowed by their motboks to purchase four quarts of whisky a month and others only one, or none at all? And why four quarts a month, anyhow?

Some of these questions I put to Dr. Ivan Bratt, originator of the Swedish liquor control system.

"It may seem arbitrary, but in reality it isn't," he replied. "You have seen the questionnaires which each holder of a motbok has to sign. They give a more or less complete 'social photograph' of the applicant. You would be surprised how many of them indicate almost automatically the amount a man should be allowed to have."

But who regulates this amount?" I asked.

"The local System companies. There is first of all, an appeal to the Central Office of the Stockholm monopoly. If a man feels himself aggrieved—feels that he hasn't been granted enough liquor—he can come and talk it over with us. He meets an official in a private room, and they discuss the matter quite by themselves. And if he still has a grievance he can take it to the Royal Board of Control. There is no further appeal. But many of them, only a very few people ever appeal to this board, and in still fewer cases is their appeal allowed."

WORLD-WIDE ASSOCIATION OF SCHOLARS ORGANIZED

Learned Societies of 19 Nations Renew Contracts; Gets $25,000
From Rockefeller Memorial.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, July 19.—Organization of a world-wide Association of Scholars to advance the aims of history was announced today by the American Historical Association. Provisional headquarters of the new association will be established in Washington, and the secretariat will function through the Institute of Intellectual Co-operation in Paris.

A permanent international Committee of Historical Sciences, with Prof. M. Koht of the University of Oslo, Norway, as president, has been formed, and arrangements made for an international Congress of Historians at Oslo in 1928.

Learned societies of 19 nations, including Germany, Russia and Austria as well as the principal allied countries, are backing the committee. Contract disrupted in 1914 by the World War will be resumed and international congresses held every five years.

The formation of the international committee is the outgrowth of a movement started in 1923 by the American delegates to a conference of historians in Brussels. The Laura Spelman Rockefeller Memorial has contributed $25,000 to the committee for its work, and means by which it may be permanently financed are being considered by its treasurer, Waldo G. Leland, executive secretary of the American Council of Learned Societies.

GOVERNOR OF JAPANESE CITY STRIPPED AND BEATEN BY MOB

at Nagano; About 100 Persons Injured.

By the Associated Press.
TOKIO, July 19.—A mob of 500 persons attacked officials of the city of Nagano yesterday. Approximately 100 persons were hurt in the rioting, including Gov. Urueya, who was dragged from his residence, stripped and beaten.

The riot was caused by the Government's retrenchment policy, which included abolition of 17 police stations in Nagano prefecture. Troops were called out. They quelled the demonstrators but made no arrests.

SIXTY LIVES REPORTED LOST BY FLOODS IN JUGO-SLAVIA

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, July 19.—Reports from Cetinje, Jugo-Slavia, say floods in that region have destroyed several villages with the loss of 60 lives.

The latest dispatches from Belgrade place the flooded areas in Jugo-Slavia at 400,000 acres, several more dams having given way under pressure of the waters.

King Alexander and Foreign Minister Ninichich are visiting the district of the motor boat. The lower parts of Belgrade are flooded, and the inhabitants have been removed.

3 EX-PREMIERS OF GREECE EXILED IN MURDER PLOT

Attempt to Assassinate President Pangalos in Plan for Coup Disclosed by Arrest of Leaders.

CONSPIRACY TRACED TO VENIZELOS' AIDS

Kafandaris, Papanastasion and Michalakopoulos Sent to Island of Naxos—Several Editors Held.

By the Associated Press.
ATHENS, July 19.—Three former Premiers of Greece have been sent to the Island of Naxos of the Cyclades group, in the Aegean sea, for alleged participation in a plot to carry out a coup d'etat and assassinate President Pangalos. In addition, several other politicians and newspaper men are under arrest, charged with conspiring against the present regime.

The former Premiers, who are described as "democratic leaders," are M. Kafandaris, Papanastasion and Michalakopoulos.

Pangalos says there is evidence that followers of former Premier Venizelos, in co-operation with Gen. Plastiras, were planning a revolution in an endeavor to oppose the attempts he was making to re-establish normal conditions in the country.

Exits to Form Cabinet.
Gen. Plastiras is credited with having been at the head of the recent unsuccessful revolutionary movement in Greece. He was among those banished when Pangalos carried out his coup d'etat in 1925, and set himself up as Premier and dictator. When elected President of Greece early in the present year, Pangalos permitted the exiles to return.

Since then there have been rumors of various plots, conspiracies and even open revolts.

For some time Pangalos has been searching for some statesman capable of forming a new ministry. He has now finally chosen Athanasios Eutaxis, former Minister of Finance.

Several other statesmen, among them Gen. Paraskevopoulos and M. Zavitianos, previously had declined to form cabinets.

Republicanism Greece has been in the throes of political upheavals ever since the Hellenes voted to disperse with royalty in March, 1924. These upheavals appeared in various forms—cabinet crises, plots, conspiracies and even open revolts.

New Downtown Theater

THE AMBASSADOR THEATER.

THE Ambassador Theater, where motion pictures will be exhibited, will be opened Aug. 19 in the six lower floors of this 17-story building nearing completion at the northwest corner of Seventh and Locust streets. Rented offices will occupy the upper 11 floors of the 192-foot high structure, which cost $4,000,000 and stands on a $1,500,000 lot, fronting 131 feet on Locust street and 154 feet on Seventh street. Buff is the prevailing color of the exterior walls, which are of polished granite, terra cotta and brick. The interior of the theater will be of Moorish design.

There will be 2000 seats on the main floor, mezzanine and balcony. The audience will face north, distance from the picture projecting machine to the screen being 145 feet. A steel truss, weighing 275 tons, was used to support weight of the building above the auditorium. Big electric signs will carry the theater name at the main corner outside. The building and theater will be operated by Spyros, Charles and George Skouras, brothers who came from Greece and built up a big amusement business.

The structure is built on a right angle, although the photograph gives it the appearance of a flat-front building.

60 MORE FACE TRIAL FOR ANTI-KEMAL PLOT

Angora Resembles Armed
Camp With Soldiers Guarding Prisoners.

By the Associated Press.
ANGORA, July 19.—The Turkish Government is ready to raise the curtain on the second act of its prosecution of political opponents, 13 of whom were hanged in the streets of Smyrna last week, after conviction of plotting to kill President Mustafa Kemal Pasha. Sixty men are to be tried. It has been decided by the Government to hold the trial in this, the new capital of Turkey, because it is unable to connect all those under arrest with the plot to kill the President, but only with an attempt to profit by his assassination and by the overthrow of the Kemal regime. The atmosphere of mystery and whispered conversation recall the days of the Sultans.

All the Accused Are Unionists.
All those under arrest are Unionists—members of the Committee of Union and Progress—feared for their political sagacity and influence abroad. Documents seized by the Government are said to show that the Unionist opposition to the Kemal movement dates from the Batum Congress of 1919, when Mustafa Kemal Pasha refused the offer of Enver Pasha to co-operate with the Unionists in the overthrow of the Sublime Porte arriving here from Constantinople.

Not possessing a prison sufficiently large, the Government has rented an old inn. Soldiers with fixed bayonets and wearing German war helmets guard the approaches to the inn, as well as the city's Chankaya residence.

City Like Armed Camp.
The city is filling with visitors, mostly diplomats and legislators and Turkish and a few foreign newspaper men. Khaki clad troops are to be seen everywhere, giving the city the appearance of an armed camp.

Capt. Reuf Bey, Turkey's one-time naval hero and Mustafa Kemal Pasha's first Premier, was despatched to the Smyrna trial, has written the President of the Turkish Parliament in response to a demand that he will appear at Angora for trial. He is reported to be in London at present and engaged to Princess Chekvar, an Egyptian, sister of Prince Seifeddin, who escaped from a sanitarium in England by airplane last year. She is a former wife of the King Fuad of Egypt.

MOST OF PROPOSED REFORMS IN CRIMINAL PROCEDURE CODE WOULD ALTER MISSOURI LAWS

Detailed Check of State's Present Statutes With Crime Commission's Suggestions for Speeding and Insuring Justice.

Most of the 20 proposals of the National Crime Commission, for reform in the code of criminal procedure, would require a change in the laws in the State of Missouri. The reform proposals were printed in full in Thursday's Post-Dispatch, forming the report of the National Crime Commission sub-committee, headed by Chancellor Herbert S. Hadley of Washington University, and were presented at the meeting of the American Bar Association in Denver.

The proposals, as published, were accompanied by statements of the sub-committee, which related to conditions in most of the states. Following is a list of the proposals in outline, with their relation to present law or custom in the criminal courts of Missouri:

Bar Proposals vs. Missouri Law.

1. Immediate public hearing before a magistrate for every person arrested on a felony charge.

Missouri has no such system. After an information is issued, the prisoner may have a preliminary hearing. Up to that time, if confined, he is subject to police questioning.

2. Elimination of verbiage in indictments.

Indictments in Missouri courts are drawn in archaic and verbose form, and omission of a word or phrase has sometimes been held to invalidate an indictment.

3. Strict requirements of bondsmen, with speedy collection in case of forfeiture.

The proposals go beyond the Missouri system of handling bond matters. In this State, a forfeiture goes over at least to the next term of court.

4. State to employ a Public Defender, or to pay lawyers to defend those unable to hire counsel.

Counsel for needy defendants serve free of charge in Missouri courts, and are usually young lawyers seeking experience.

5. Same right for State as for defense to disqualify trial judge for prejudice.

This now exists in Missouri.

6. Juror who has formed opinion, from reading of case, not to be disqualified if trial judge thinks him capable of giving impartial verdict.

This depends on judges, in courts of the state. Some judges overrule the opinion of jurors who, though having formed opinion, declare it will not influence their verdict.

7. State and defense to have same number of jury challenges.

Defense has more challenges than the State, in Missouri, 12 to 10, and in murder cases, 20 to 15.

8. Defendants charged with joint crimes to be tried jointly, unless court holds that this would work an injustice.

Judges in Missouri must grant severance whenever asked by any defendant.

9. Defendant, if testified to, shall be subject to cross-examination by any other witness, and if he does not testify, the prosecutor may comment to the jury on that fact.

This would be a complete change from the present procedure here. The State is now limited, in cross-examination of a defendant witness, to matter on which he was questioned, in direct examination. It is now reversible error for a prosecutor to allude to the jury's hearing of a defendant's failure to testify.

10. State may take depositions in criminal cases.

Only the defense has the right to introduce depositions in Missouri courts. This is in line with constitutional requirement that defendant shall be confronted with the witnesses against him. It might be possible to frame a statute safeguarding the defendant's rights and making the provision suggested.

11. Defining the presumption of innocence.

This is practically as now defined in instructions of judges to juries in this State.

12. Judge to have power to comment on evidence, testimony and character of witnesses.

Judges now have no such power in this State, being permitted only to advise juries as to the law. The system proposed is that of Federal courts. A bill is now pending in Congress to take away power of Federal judges to comment on evidence, which would reduce their powers to those of State judges.

13. Five-sixths' jury verdict sufficient to convict of all felonies except those for which the death penalty is fixed by law. Jury to convict. Judge to fix penalty. Defendant may waive trial by jury, and be tried by judge.

Unanimous verdicts now required in Missouri criminal courts. Jury convicts and fixes penalty. Defendant may escape jury trial only by pleading guilty.

14. No conviction to be reversed except for material error, resulting in miscarriage of justice.

Missouri has a statute of this character, which does not go quite so far as that suggested.

Delays in Appeals.
One year is allowed to perfect appeals in Missouri, and there are various opportunities for delay.

15. More speedy handling of appeals.

This practice is generally followed in Missouri.

16. Prompt setting for retrial of remanded cases, on original charge.

This practice is generally followed in Missouri.

17. Prosecuting officers to be heard on parole questions. No parole or pardon to issue without a public statement five days in advance.

Prosecutors are consulted about paroles by most judges in this State. Paroles and pardons are granted without advance public notice.

Appeal Bonds.
18. No appeal bond for convicted persons, except where trial court holds that the appeal is on reasonable grounds.

This is the Federal court system. In Missouri, appeal bonds must be accepted unless the offense is not bailable.

19. New regulations for cases in which insanity is pleaded as a defense.

Missouri now has most, but not all, of the proposed rules.

20. Judge to have power of overruling prosecutor's motion to enter order of nolle prosequi, and to have power to name special prosecutor.

Missouri judges are generally held not to have power to overrule a prosecutor who wishes to nolle-pros a case. They have no power to name a special prosecutor.

Judge-Landwehr's Comment.
Circuit Judge Frank Landwehr, on duty through this month in the criminal division, said after reading the proposals that he commented especially the eighth proposal, in a case where the twelfth which provides that the jury shall convict, and the judge shall assess the penalty.

"It is very desirable to require joint trials in cases of joint crimes," he said. "The present system of compulsory severance is costly, and does not contribute to justice. Our system of having juries fix the penalty tends to make jurors shrink from finding defendants guilty. If they were required merely to determine the fact of guilt, some of the reluctance shown in finding guilty in cases of clear guilt, would disappear."

"The ninth proposal, to permit prosecutors to comment on a defendant's failure to testify, is a good one for most cases. I am not sure that it would not work a hardship in a case where the defense introduces no testimony, but makes its stand on a demurrer to the State's case."

MURDER CHARGE IS MODIFIED French Authorities Accuse Artist of Unintentional Homicide.

By the Associated Press.
PARIS, July 19.—The charge of first degree murder preferred against Donald Sherwood, New York artist, for the death of Joseph Schoerlin, a French soldier, has been modified to "unintentional manslaughter."

Schoerlin was struck by Sherwood's automobile on May 28 and subsequently died. At the preliminary hearing Sherwood declared that the killing was accidental, but an alleged eye witness testified that Sherwood first clubbed Schoerlin and then drove his automobile over him to make it appear that the death was accidental.

Sponsor of Theodore Roosevelt Dies
By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, July 19.—Joseph Murray, former State Commissioner of Public Buildings, who was credited with being "the discoverer of Theodore Roosevelt," died at his home here last night at the age of 80. Mr. Murray, who was prominent in Republican politics in this city, obtained the nomination of the late President for the Assembly in the old Twenty-Seventh District. After he was elected President, Roosevelt publicly thanked Mr. Murray for helping him in his political climb. President Roosevelt appointed Murray Assistant Commissioner of Immigration in 1902.

Amundsen Dinner Guest of King.
By the Associated Press.
OSLO, July 19.—King Haakon and Queen Maud last night gave a dinner party in honor of Roald Amundsen and those of his companions who have returned to Norway since their recent flight across the North Pole from Spitzbergen to Alaska in the dirigible Norge. The King in a speech paid high compliment to Commander Nobile of the Norge and Lincoln Ellsworth, the American who participated in the flight, as well as Amundsen.

'JOLANTHE' TONIGHT AT MUNICIPAL THEATER

Gilbert and Sullivan Opera Eighth Week's Bill—Record Attendance Forecast.

Audiences at the seven performances at the Municipal Theater last week of "Sweethearts," Victor Herbert's light opera, aggregated about 52,000 persons.

The reserved sections accommodated 42,000 of these and the remainder, by estimate, were in the free seats. When this production was given for the first time in the Forest Park amphitheater in 1922 the attendance was 35,000, and on its repetition in 1923 there were 43,000 spectators. During the present season only "Il Trovatore" had a greater attendance than "Sweethearts." "Il Trovatore" drew 55,000 persons.

Average weekly attendance at the opera this year, the eighth annual season of the Municipal Theater Association, has been greater than ever before. It is predicted that the total for the 12 weeks will be about 600,000, if the present rate is maintained. Last year, with a season of the same length, the total was 447,000.

The eighth week will begin with Gilbert and Sullivan's "Jolanthe" tonight. This will be the first production of this opera in the Municipal Theater. It is interesting to note that the usual top price of $1.50 a seat, or $2 in a box, will be retained, while at a revival of this popular work in a New York indoor theater $3 and more is being charged. It is pointed out also that the local chorus is three times as large as that in New York and the orchestra twice as big, while the great stage here permits elaborate scenic arrangements.

FULL POLICE HONORS AT FUNERAL OF JOHN M. SHEA

Services for Lieutenant, Who Was Bertillon Superintendent, to Be Held Tomorrow Morning.

Police Lieutenant John M. Shea, superintendent of the Bertillon Bureau since 1903, who died early yesterday of pneumonia, will be buried tomorrow morning with full police honors. The services will be at the family residence, 2810 Cass avenue, at 8:30 o'clock, and later at St. Leo's Church. Interment will be in Calvary Cemetery.

Pallbearers will be five members of the Police Department and three civilian friends—Lieut. Elias Hoagland, Detective-Sergeants John Caskley and Richard Joyce, Walter Heitz, Bertillon Bureau attaché, George E. Baker, police photographer, and Hugh McAdams, James Gallagher and Michael Corley, Assistant Chief of Detectives. John McCarthy will be in charge of the police detail.

Lieut. Shea was 50 years old, and was known as "the man with the camera eye" because of his remarkable memory for criminals' faces. He was a bachelor and made his home with his sisters, the Misses Mammie and Katherine Shea, the latter a teacher at the Lowell School.

MISS PREWITT IS A BRIDE

Kentucky Girl Weds Dr. Alfred Shands Jr. at Ancestral Home.

BALTIMORE, Md., July 19.—A romance, begun at Johns Hopkins Hospital, has resulted in the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Prewitt of Lexington, Ky., to Dr. Alfred Shands Jr., orthopedic surgeon at the hospital. The bride is a graduate nurse of that institution.

The bridesmaids were her sisters, Miss Kitty and Miss Martha Prewitt; her cousins, Miss Elizabeth Van Meter of Winchester, Ky., and Miss Elizabeth Taylor of Little Rock, Ark., and Miss Agnes Shands, sister of the bridegroom.

KING BORIS TO VISIT ROME

Bulgarian Ruler Disappears From Lacarne, Switzerland.

GENEVA, Switzerland, July 19.—King Boris of Bulgaria, bachelor monarch, who is believed to be in search of a wife, has left Lacarne for another part of Switzerland, but just where, the Bulgarian legation at Berna professes not to know.

Rumors of a possible marriage between King Boris and Princess Giovanna, third daughter of King Victor Emmanuel of Italy, are still in the air: there seems to be little doubt in the minds of those who speculate that Boris has matrimonial intentions, although the choice of a consort cannot be predicted for a certainty. Princess Giovanna, however, appears to be the favorite. It is understood that King Boris will visit Rome before returning to Sofia. An alliance between the Bulgarian and Italian dynasties, it is pointed out, would be of importance in view of Italian policy in the Balkans, which is largely economic.

UNHERALED and unsung, "The Unknown Soldier" slipped into the Grand Central, West End Lyric and Capitol this week and proved to be one of the best of the many pictures of the World War. Without the glamour of an admission price of $1.50 and a special orchestra it is rather difficult to compare this film with "The Big Parade," yet it has a better story than the latter picture, is just as carefully made and lacks only the wide scope of the battle scenes to make it just as good a picture. It might well be called "The Little Big Parade." The average movie audience may or may not like the ending of the picture. One will have to be in exactly the right humor to "get" the wedding of the very alive girl with the dead soldier. This bit of business, excellently done, will either appear silly and fall flat or be very impressive. It is a fine picture.

Under Cover.

THE Missouri is making a mystery of its program this week and, after a fashion, daring people to come into the theater without knowing what they are going to see. As most fans pick their entertainment that way anyhow, no great harm is done in not mentioning the name of the film here. Suffice it to say that it is just a fair program picture backed up by a fair stage show which is injured by a lot of annoying comedy.

Adam and Eve in China.

EVER'S LEAVES," at Loew's State, is very light and fairly airy nonsense for the dog days, a farcical melodrama concerning a girl raised as a boy aboard her father's ship, "The Garden of Eden," in far-off Mookoo, China, where the dread bandit, Chang Fang, holds sway. Eve, in this case Leatrice Joy, gives Adam, otherwise William Boyd, a peck of apples—for a kiss for each bite—and the fun starts. They are kidnapped to Chang Fang's lair. There is a rescue, and a person is dug up out of hiding in a barrel of time for a happy fade-out. Diminutive Frances White sings all about how she would like to be a monkey in the zoo, and Rubinoff, violinist, again brings down the house with teasing harmonies.

Oui, Oui, Oui.

LOAN CHANEY puts on the distinction of a French Canadian to act in "The Trap" at Kings and Rivolt this week, and you can tell the agony it cost him. Putting on a French Canadian's face, tortured every muscle. It must have taken 15 steel braces to enable Loan to shrug his shoulders like a French Canadian. Every gesture is a cry of pain until you get the distinct impression that looking like a French Canadian is much more painful than looking like a potato bug or the Hunchback of Notre Dame, which Loan does with equal facility. Loan takes the part of Gaspard the Good (French Canadians have names like that because the villain is Benson the Evil) and he loves Thelma, a halfbreed. But the villain takes from Gaspard both his girl and his gold mine, leaving him to wreak vengeance. This Gaspard does in a none too subtle way but the villain and the girl beat Gaspard in the end. They leave him their child to raise. All of which goes to show that a big-hearted French Canadian is in plain American language—Steve, himself. A good enough picture, though in Chaney's early, or grinning, manner.

Wearing of the Green. IF EVER a picture deserved to be rated 100 per cent Irish, it is "The Shamrock Handicap," being shown at the St. Louis Theater.

ADVERTISING Women Rave Over New French Powder

A new kind of face powder is here. Made by a new French Process—stays on until you take it off. Pores and lines do not show. Not affected by perspiration. Gives life and beauty to your complexion almost unbelievable. It is called MELLO-GLO. You will love it. Wolff-Wilson Drug Co., Johnson Bros. Drug Co., Famous & Barr Co., E. ter this week. Brimful of Irish jests and Irish jingles, Irish race horses and Irish jockies, Irish lords and Irish castles, it manages to include several good Irish fights and shifts the scene to the United States long enough to introduce at least a dozen robust Irish policemen. Going to St. Patrick's Day parties every year of our lives couldn't teach us as much about Ireland as does this one film. The succession of O'Hares and O'Sheas, O'Tools and McCoys, makes the appearance of one Bennie Ginsberg a welcome relief. But what chance has a Bennie Ginsberg in this picture? Wearing a shamrock on his back, Bennie, who is a jockey, undertakes to ride Dark Rosaleen, from the O'Hare stables, in the big race. He is thrown before the start and the hero, a true son of Erin, takes the saddle and wins. This hero, by the way, is rather a sad young man and not at all in line with the usual up and coming character drawn by the pen of Peter B. Kyne, author of this story. The poor boy has tears in his eyes half the time and in at least two instances breaks down and weeps on the shoulder of the fair colleen. Most interesting are the motion pictures of Lieutenant Commander Byrd's Arctic flight which are being shown as an added feature at the St. Louis. Several acts of mediocre vaudeville, including much music and dancing, round out the program.

AD CLUBS TO BOOST RELIGION

The Rev. Charles Steile to Direct World-Wide Campaign.

NEW YORK, July 19.—The Associated Advertising Clubs of the World announce today that they will carry on a world-wide campaign in behalf of religion, using the radio, newspapers, billboards, posters and various exhibits.

The Rev. Charles Steile of New York has been elected to direct the campaign. "Our purpose," said Dr. Steile, "will be to demonstrate that religion is the biggest factor in human life and that those who believe in it should definitely line up with some church. We do not pretend that advertising men know more about religion than preachers, but they do know more about advertising. This entire campaign will be conducted in closest cooperation with the ministers and the churches."

SARAZEN AND SMITH ARE TIED AFTER 108 HOLES

Each Averages 71½ Strokes for Six Rounds in Metropolitan Open Golf Final—Play-Off Next Saturday.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, July 19.—The Metropolitan Open Golf Championship scheduled at 72 holes of medal play in two days, already has required 108 holes and three days—and remains in the balance.

Gene Sarazen, who won the open at Skokie in 1922, and silent, methodical MacDonald Smith, who captured the Western and Long Island open titles last year, are arrayed against each other in a record-making duel.

Already they have reached the hole to which Bobby Jones and Willie MacFarlane were driven in the National Open at Worcester in 1921—two rounds of playoff—but with a different result. They remain all even and will try to reach a decision in another 18-hole round at Salisbury next Saturday morning.

Sarazen, who acquired the Metropolitan title at Grassy Sprain last summer, is playing brilliant golf in its defense, but without shaking for an instant the wonderful shot-maker who for several seasons has been a real threat in all kinds of competition. Tied at 286 in 72 holes in their two play-off rounds yesterday both scored under par figures, 70, in the morning, 72 in the afternoon. Par for the 6447 yard course is 73.

Each has taken 428 strokes in the championship to date with six rounds completed—an average of 71.3.

TITLE RACES

BRAY TEAM AND HIP A. C. HAVE EASY SAILING

Laclede Nine Turns First Triple Play of the Season in Opening Game of Y. M. H. A. Double-Header.

With the close of the season only four weeks off, there is no municipal baseball league in which the pennant is certain to go to any one team. The Hip A. C. in the Blue Ridge circuit comes closest to having a clinch, the best its next rival can hope for being a tie.

Bray-Hambuchien has the flag actually clinched in the Thompsons, 1915 city champions, look like certain winners in the South Side League. They have won twelve straight.

Three teams are deadlocked in first position in the Empire League, where the Typos, Laclede and International are clustered at the top. Typos and International both won yesterday while the Laclede was splitting a double bill with Y. M. H. A. The first triple play of the season took place in the first game of the double-header, the Laclede fielding turning the trick.

Kohn was on first for the Y. M. H. A. and Kohn on third. Fleischer hit out to D. Ducker in left who perfect throw caught Kohn at the plate. Kohn attempted to get to second on the play and was thrown out. E. Ducker to Ahearn.

The Independent League's four-cornered tie was broken and the Motorbros and Morgans now hold the lead jointly with the Shells and Glasco tied for second.

Robbers Get Only $40

In Jewelry Store Holdup

Threaten to Kill Proprietor But Fail to Find Hiding Place of Diamonds

The Bell & Bell jewelry store at 5069 Delmar boulevard was visited at 9:10 a. m. today by two armed men who forced the proprietor, Saul Bell, to lie on the floor while they ransacked the safe. They threatened to kill Bell, when he refused to tell them where "the diamonds" were, but he gave them no information. A customer, August Tempelman, entered and was made to lie on the floor. The robbers finally departed with about $40 taken from a drawer in the safe.

Two robbers obtained about $3000 in diamonds and money in a holdup at the store May 7.

IDENTIFIED AS HOLDUP MAN

Micky Jones, Cuckoo gangster and member of the so-called "East Side mob," arrested on the street by detectives Saturday night, on general suspicion, was identified yesterday as the robber of a Kroger store manager, Chief of Detectives Kaiser reported.

Jones, who is at liberty on $15,000 bond on a charge of being one of the men who robbed and attacked a group of tourists on the East Side a month ago, was named by Richard Marlowe, manager of the Kroger store at 1243 Hodgson avenue, as the man who took $183 and his automobile from him on June 1—Jones denied being the robber.

INDIANA EDITOR RELEASED

Chief Justice of State Supreme Court Grants Writ of Error, Stays Prison Sentence.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 19.—Counsel for George R. Dale, Muncie, Ind., editor, filed a comprehensive brief in the State Supreme Court here today, assigning 17 errors in the contempt case in which Dale was sentenced to serve six months at the Indiana State Farm by Judge Clarence Dearth of the Delaware County Court. Today's action opens the way to bring the proceedings before the Supreme Court of the United States.

Chief Justice David A. Myers, sitting for the entire court, sustained Dale's writ of error and ordered the issuance of the writ. Dale's appeal bond to the United States Supreme Court was fixed by Judge Myers at $1000.

In addition, Judge Myers ordered a supersedeas which is the legal auxiliary process to supersede the enforcement of the judgment in the Dale case, pending the writ of error which Dale is seeking in an appeal from the action of the State Supreme Court in affirming the sentence which Judge Dearth imposed.

Dale's counsel contended that all courts in Indiana were created either under an act of the Legislature or under the Constitution of the State and that nowhere, in other case, is there a penalty provided for contempt of court.

SMALL FRENCH PLANE TESTED
Makes 90 Miles an Hour From Paris to Warsaw.

PARIS, July 19.—Lieut. Thoret, the French aviator, piloting an airplane with a wing spread of 20 feet and a 40 horsepower motor, yesterday made a non-stop flight between Warsaw and Paris at an average of 90 miles an hour.

Thoret left the Polish capital at 10 o'clock in the morning and arrived at the Le Bourget airport at 3:20 p. m.

The aviator had sufficient gasoline in his tank when he landed to fly to London had he so desired. The "Glonette" consumes one and one-half gallons of fuel for every 10 miles flown. Thoret's trip was made with the purpose of making air tours popular. He says flying in the small plane is cheaper than using an automobile.

FOREST FIRES IN NORTHWEST CONTINUE BEYOND CONTROL

Volunteers Succeeded in Saving Town of Superior, Mont.; Flames Raging in Idaho, British Columbia.

SEATTLE, July 19.—Forest fires continue beyond control in Northeastern Washington, Northern Idaho and Western Montana, with daring rescues by volunteer fighters preventing a growing death toll.

Montana and Idaho rangers are leading 2000 fighters in a campaign in National Forests, which, fanned by high winds, continue to devastate large stands of valuable timber.

Volunteer firemen yesterday succeeded in saving the town of Superior, in Northern Montana, but lost control of the flames which swept past the town. A new fire in the Blackfoot Forest, in the west of Glacier National Park, is estimated to have covered 10,000 acres and destroyed numerous ranch buildings.

British Columbia reported four fires uncontrolled with continued high winds and heat forecast. The serious blazes were at Fanny Bay and Stillwater, adjacent to logging camps, and in the Sooke district on Vancouver Island, where watershed timber of Victoria, B. C., was endangered.

A fire in Pend Oreille Forest at the lower end of Salmon Valley, destroyed a power house of the Red Bird Mine. This forest covers Northeastern Washington, Northern Idaho and Southeastern British Columbia.

The Post-Dispatch reserves the right to reject any query. Personal and telephone calls, or answers by mail, cannot be given attention, except letters on medical questions of undoubted sincerity when accompanied by stamped addressed envelope.

ADELE.—Inquire of one of the various song shops here for the information.

P.-D. READER.—Consult formula books at the Public Library for full information regarding the proper mixture for the concrete steps.

N. C.—Inquire of your local florist regarding the tree and if he is unable to supply you with the desired information, write to the Missouri Botanical Garden, St. Louis, and they will gladly give the information.

ETIQUETTE.—An informal dinner dress is usually worn at a restaurant; however, the dress would depend on the city, as well as the occasion. You must follow the custom of the place you happen to be in. It is never good form to be elaborately dressed in any public place, and when in doubt as to what to wear always select the plainer dress.

READER.—Algernon Charles Swinburne, the English poet, was born in London in 1837 and died in 1909. He was not out of his teens before he began to compose lyrics and ballads. He was largely suggested or influenced by the scenery, traditions and legends of the South of England and the border lands.

The latter he was strongly influenced by his mother, who had lived much in Florence and elsewhere in Italy. At Oxford he won the friendship of Dante Gabriel Rossetti, William Morris and Edward Burne-Jones.

He was devoted to Rossetti, his debt would be difficult to appraise correctly. After Oxford he went to East Devon, near Bournemouth.

PAT.—Cancer is in no sense contagious and hence there is no danger of any one contracting it from your mother.

WORRIED.—You evidently have a parasitic condition. And from your description of the case would judge it to be a species of Ascaris. You should consult a skin specialist.

V. E.—If you send a self-addressed envelope, repeating your question, we will refer you to a plastic surgeon.

General Motors Records

New Top-Profit-Taking

In General List and Late

Prices Irregular—New

Low on French Franc.

By Leased Wire from the New York

Bureau of the Post-Dispatch

NEW YORK, July 19.—The Evening Post's copy of the financial review today says:

"Another advance in stocks in the face of renewed profit taking, a collapse of French franc to a record low for all time and irregular movement in commodity prices featured today's financial markets.

Motor shares led the stock market to higher levels, while some of the rail shares were well bought and a few favorites in the specialties climbed to new peaks. In general, however, operations were moderated by professionals and a feeling of uncertainty was prevalent.

Weakness in several of the French external and municipal bond issues featured quieter trading in investments. The general trend was mixed.

Recovery in Motor Shares.

"One of the features of the day's trading was the renewed demand for motor stocks, many of which sold at the best levels reached since the decline in March. General Motors, of course, was the leading factor in the advance, and the advance was well supported by trading at the highest record for the present shares above 170 before taking through about a setback.

Hudson showed signs of old-time vigor with a spurt of about five points, while Dodge and Chrysler shares were the most active. Buying was encouraged by reports that a heavy short interest had been caught in the stocks and the action of the stocks indicated confidence in the recovery of the market. The general trend was taking place. A generally steady tone prevailed elsewhere in the market, a downward trend without much irregularity. Oil stocks were unsettled by reports of prospective increased production and lowering of gasoline prices.

Exchanges Decline Again.

"Another sharp break in French francs unsettled the market for foreign exchange. Although the volume of trading here was small rates on Paris fell more than 1/4 cent, quotations here showed a recovery of almost ten points from the bottom reached in London before the New York market opened.

Thereafter rates fell to the equivalent of 206 cents. Both markets were all the lowest in history. Belgian francs and lire also showed a downward trend, but the latter course and sold within a short distance of record low levels. Spanish exchange was also heavy. The remainder of the list was steady, however, sterling holding unchanged.

Lower Rate For Money.

"Another factor that contributed to improved sentiment was the decline in money rates to four percent after renewal had been fixed at 4 1/2 percent. This sign of satisfactory credit conditions increased confidence in the market and renewed operations in several favorites. Several specialties continued to force ahead, Westinghouse Air Lines, Texas Gulf Sulphur, East Iron Pipe and Cushman's being among those that sold at new tops. Toward the end of the day realising sales again unsettled the trend and gave the list a somewhat irregular trend.

Commodities Irregular.

"Prices in the principal commodity markets were irregular. Cotton was rather freely offered and fell about 1/4 a bale. Wheat recovered after a setback and showed small net advances while corn was in good demand and advanced almost three cents a bushel.

NINE DEAD, HEAVY LOSS CAUSED BY STORMS

Many Injured in New England, New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, July 19.—Nine deaths and property damage estimated at $250,000 today marked a path of electrical, rain and wind storms yesterday from Ohio to Maine.
In addition, three boys, who set out in a canoe from Sandy Hook, N. J., are missing. Four deaths in New England were caused by lightning. Four others were killed by falling trees or drowned in New England during storms.
Marie-Ange Dubois of Adams, Mass., was killed by a lightning bolt that struck and injured her brother, Alfred.
Leo McCaughey, Hampton Beach, N. H.; Edward L. Snow, Hermon, Me., and Fred Felch, Salisbury, Mass., were the others killed by lightning.

Lightning struck near the destroyed navy arsenal at Lake Denmark, N. J., frightening thousands of sightseers, but did no damage. The main railroad station at Brockton, Mass., was struck by lightning and the roof partly burned. The three back rows of the grandstand at Fenway Park, home of the Boston Red Sox, were demolished by the wind. The 90-foot steeple of the Asbury Methodist Church in Springfield, Mass., crashed to the ground. Two apartment houses in Springfield were unroofed and a boat house blown into the water. Numerous farm buildings in New England were destroyed.

Crops were damaged by wind and hail in Maine and New Hampshire.
At Coney Island police reserves were called out to handle panic-stricken throngs trying to board trains for home after the storm broke.

Harvey C. Highman, instructor in Ohio State University, was killed by a falling tree near Delaware, O., during a storm.

In Central Pennsylvania six persons were injured, wire communication crippled, highways blocked and much damage was done by hail.

At Portsmouth, N. H., a terrific wind whirled seashore pebbles up into the sky and blew them about. Hundreds of windows were broken. Some of the ordinary hall stones were reported as large as golf balls.

At York Beach, Me., H. L. Hutchins, keeper of the Boone Island Light, six miles off the coast, said he collected several bucketsful of hailstones and used them to fill two ice cream freezers. Afterwards he served the ices to his family and assistant.

ROBBERS KIDNAP FAMILY TO GET $15,000 FROM SAFE

Fairlyland Park in Kansas City Looted and Watchmen Who Intervened Are Captured.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
KANSAS CITY, July 19.—Four men early today kidnaped Sam Benjamin, manager of Fairlyland Park, and his wife and daughter, forced them to return to the resort from the vicinity of their home and robbed the safe of the entire week-end receipts, estimated at between $15,000 and $20,000. Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin and their daughter were driving to their home about 12:30 when another car carrying the four robbers forced them to the curb near their home. The robbers abandoned their own car and entered Benjamin's sedan and made him drive to the park. As they entered the park office two park policemen, attracted by the noise, hurried up to investigate. They were disarmed and tied by the robbers, who then made Benjamin open the safe.

Fire on Alaskan Railroad.

By the Associated Press.
SEWARD, Alaska, July 19.—A round house, a locomotive and a power plant, all owned by the Alaska Railroad, were destroyed by fire at Curry, 190 miles north of here yesterday. A $100,000 hotel owned by the railroad was put in darkness by the destruction of the power plant. Curry is a division point of the railroad and trains, en route from Seward to Fairbanks, the northern terminus, stop there overnight. About 50 employees of the road are stationed there. The railroad is owned by the United States Government.

Careful Drivers

The following letter gives an intimate picture of the working out of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) campaign for greater safety, and a point of view not often considered.

Manager, Standard Oil Co., Wichita, Kansas.

Dear Sir:

I have been fighting the railroad battle for 30 years—as fireman and engineer. Am now an engineer on the Santa Fe, running between Newton and Arkansas City. I take this means of letting the management of the Standard Oil Company know how much I appreciate the consideration your truck drivers give a man running an engine. It is such a relief to see your men stop a safe distance from the tracks and give us a high-ball, which seemingly is a small thing to do yet means so much to us.

I thank you.

Yours truly,

H. G. Carson.

This letter presents a peculiarly interesting point of view on the question of traffic safety—that of the train man who is often forced to play an unwilling part in tragic motoring accidents.

The man who drives an engine over a prescribed pathway, according to prescribed schedule, must often share in the disaster caused by carelessness of a motorist who drives according to his own time and pleasure.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has been unusually successful in preventing such carelessness among its drivers, by its extensive and intensive safety campaign.

All Standard Oil Company (Indiana) drivers are taught to recognize the ever-present dangers of motor traffic. They are taught to respect the rights of others.

A Standard Oil Company (Indiana) driver does not "take a chance" at a railroad crossing. He knows that the oncoming train has right of way. He knows that it is his duty to respect that right and to consider the other fellow. What this consideration means to the engineer of the train is shown in the above letter of appreciation.

Extra caution at railroad crossings is a part of the program of extra carefulness that all Standard Oil Company (Indiana) drivers rigidly follow.

They do more than obey traffic regulations to the letter, because they share the purpose for which the regulations were made—to prevent the deaths of innocent people—and they share the spirit of human sympathy and consideration which prompted their making.

This spirit is to be expected of the loyal men of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) organization. They have learned to consider the rights, convenience, and safety of the other fellow first, as a working business principle, every day of the year.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) was created to serve the people of the Middle West. Its safety campaign is but an extension of this service which is resulting in a larger realization of its high purpose.

who directed the conversation, such as it was. He was suave, courteous, unobtrusive. They discussed the weather, he recommended to them several playhouses, then current at local playhouses, he held forth at length upon the excellence of the local stock company and of a musical comedy shortly to play a week at the leading theater. He talked generally about the possible contenders in the world series, then only a few weeks off.

Alan and his wife answered as politely as they could, but conversation was an effort. Reaction had set in: the strain of the day was gone and a status had been established.

Already they regarded North as an outsider and Alan, on his part, felt the man's presence to be a rather sinister reminder of the bizarre conditions surrounding this marriage.

Ellen fulfilled her promise of efficiency. Dishes appeared and disappeared swiftly and silently. A wedding cake came in last—accompanied by a bottle of rare wine. North rose—

"To both of you!"

There was apparently nothing of heavy in his manner. As Alan drank the toast his eyes met those of his wife, but his thoughts were with North. What was the man thinking? He didn't seem human—making a mock of life and of tragedy. Then he felt a pang of disloyalty. After all, the situation was not of North's seeking. He—Alan Beckwith—had gone into it with eyes wide open and against the earnest counsel of the very man who now owned his life.

After dinner the men smoked. Beverly curled up in an easy chair under a reading lamp: she seemed very tiny and exquisitely dainty. Her brown eyes were focused upon Alan's lean, expressive face, and he saw in them a speculative light. Occasionally she turned her gaze upon North—and when she did so, the softness fled and in its stead came a bitter light—a light of implacable hatred and of abiding fear.

At length North rose to go. Ellen had long since departed. North bowed, shook hands with each, and the door closed behind him. For a moment Alan and Beverly stood motionless, then they turned and walked back to the living room.

The mantel clock showed 9:30. From outside came the clatter and clangor of traffic: the strident sound of street car gongs, the clink of automobile wheels. From somewhere came the raucous bellows of boys at play and the blare of an orchestra at a cheap neighborhood picture theater.

The apartment was pervaded by an air of ineffable peace and quietude. The ceiling light in the living room had been extinguished and the place was bathed in the soft glow of the reading lamp.

He felt a contentment which he could not understand. Thirteen months seemed an eternity; he could not fear the inevitable when that inevitable was so far away.

TRIFLING DISPUTE CAN LEAD TO DIVORCE

Particularly When a Handsome and Chivalrous Man Appears on the Scene to Shed Glamour Before a Pouting Woman.

By WINIFRED BLACK.

WINIFRED BLACK

MARY'S got a divorce. She's awfully pleased about it. She's been wanting that divorce for some time—ever since the new young man moved into town and opened the new drug store, and Mary met him one day at the soda fountain.

Mary had just had a quarrel with Tom, a real quarrel. Mary wanted her mother to come and live with her and Tom, and Tom said no, he'd help support Mary's mother, but if her own sons didn't want mother to live with them and their wives, he didn't quite see why he and Mary should take up the white man's burden.

Not just then, anyway. Tom was having trouble with his business and wasn't very well. Then Mary said what she thought about Tom's family, and Tom sort of hinted what he thought about Mary's relations.

And Mary cried and Tom slammed the door, and Mary went to the drug store for a bromo seltzer. The new clerk waited on her and was so sympathetic about the headache, and so much taller than Tom, with broader shoulders. Then she met him at the church picnic when he was putting up the swings for the children; they seemed to "take to each other" right away. Mary couldn't help seeing how much nicer he was than Tom—she just couldn't.

Other people may not have thought so, but Mary saw at a glance that the new man was lonesome and not much of a favorite socially.

Tom liked him, too; said he was a modest, unassuming fellow, and had more to him than people thought. Tom asked him to the house, took him to dinner at the country club and Mary couldn't hide her feelings—to anyone but Tom.

She simply doted on the new man and she showed it in every turn of her poor little head and every tone of her pleasant little voice, and she bought new clothes—youthful looking clothes. The new man was a good deal younger than Mary, so she had her hair bobbed. Finally she sneaked away to town one day, saw a lawyer, and asked him what to do to get the divorce. Tom was amazed and stunned when he heard about it from the lawyer—and now it's all over and done, the little dream Tom had of a quiet, happy home and a lifetime with the one woman he really loved.

And Mary is delighted! What a goose she was to worry so about it all, really, when you have a man like Tom to deal with!

"If Mary wants a divorce," said Tom, "she shall have one," and he never lifted one finger to stop it. He never told his side of the story, he never even hinted at it, he just let Mary have what she wanted.

North the hurly-burly of life seemed to have been shut out. Flims had been written upon the life of Alan Beckwith, and a query enough—a new chapter was being constructed: an epilogue. He felt a contentment which he could not understand. Thirteen months seemed an eternity; he could not fear the inevitable when that inevitable was so far away.

Danny Learns How Crabs Grow

Learn to live and live to learn;
And no chance for knowledge spurn.
—Old Mother Nature.

"WHAT is a soft-shelled crab?" demanded Danny Meadow Mouse.

"Just that, and nothing more," retorted Jimmy Skunk. "It is a crab with a soft shell."

"How can it be a shell if it is soft?" demanded Danny. "All shells that I've ever seen are hard. How can a shell be soft?"

Jimmy Skunk thoughtfully scratched his nose. "I suppose you are right," said he. "It does seem queer about a soft shell. Perhaps it isn't shell until it gets hard. Anyway, those crabs have a soft covering which later becomes hard. It is more like a skin first and later it becomes a shell. I'll show you if we have any kind of luck."

It was some time later and after Danny had forgotten all about the subject in his interest in other things that Jimmy Skunk came to a little tidepool from which the water had not run out when the tide went out. There was a rock on the edge of it and seaweed attached to the rock and lying in a mass in the water. Jimmy pulled away this seaweed and suddenly scooped something out onto the sand. "Here's one!" he cried.

"Here's what?" asked Danny, hurrying up to see what it was that Jimmy had.

"A soft-shelled crab," replied Jimmy. "Just touch him and you'll see that he hasn't any hard shell."

It was a small crab and Danny at last ventured to touch it. Sure enough, it was soft. There was no hard shell at all. Those pinching claws were perfectly harmless. There was no pinch in them. "Do you mean to say," squeaked Danny, "that this fellow ever will have a hard shell like those others I've seen?"

Jimmy Skunk's eyes twinkled. "No," said he, "I don't mean to say anything of the kind. This fellow never will have a hard shell. But if he were not such good eating, or if he hadn't been caught, he would in time have had a hard shell."

"Are you going to eat him?" demanded Danny.

"I certainly am," replied Jimmy.

"Sure, food that's good for me, but make it taste like something, too"—so he starts with Puffed Rice

MEN want to eat food that's "good" for them, of course. But above all, they want food that coaxes the appetite into action, too. That's why so many have turned to Puffed Rice, said by experts to be the most delicious cereal food known; a food that proves food that's good for you can be gloriously delicious, too.

Each grain is steam puffed to eight times its natural size. And that makes digestion easy. Then it's oven toasted. Which makes it oddly enticing to the taste.

It's food that supplies the vitally needed carbohydrate elements you need for health's sake. Tastes like toasted nuts, tempts like a confection, makes it unnecessary to eat cereal foods you don't like much, simply because you feel you need them.

Isn't it better to have that kind of cereal on your table; one that tempts and entices than just an ordinary one? Most people think it is. Try Puffed Rice just for once. You will be delighted. Obtain at your grocery store.

and suited the action to the word. "I suppose," said Danny thoughtfully, "that it was because he was so small that he had a soft shell."

"No," replied Jimmy promptly, "nothing of the kind. Big crabs are the same way sometimes. They have to get out of their hard shells in order to grow. So once or twice a year they shed their shells and grow new ones. It is when they shed their shells that they are called soft-shelled crabs. Didn't you ever see a caterpillar grow by shedding its skin?"

"Yes," replied Danny, "but a skin is one thing and a shell is another. How can one of those fellows get out of his shell? Do you mean to tell me that he gets every bit out, legs and pincers and everything?"

"So I'm told," replied Jimmy, "and I guess it's so, because I've found the empty shells lots of times. When a crab gets ready to leave his old shell the shell cracks in certain places and the crab squeezes himself out. Then he keeps hidden as much as possible until the new shell hardens, because when it is soft, fish and other creatures, including men, are all the time looking for it. I've seen those two-legged creatures called men take home baskets full of soft-shelled crabs. They are called Blue Crabs. That was a Blue Crab you saw, and it is the Blue Crab that is considered best eating when it is soft-shelled."
